

Mr. Kane D. Snowden,

When I signed up for the "Do-NOT-CALL" list I expected that all unsolicited calls from all telemarketers would be forbidden. I do not appreciate the loopholes for either Radio or TV stations; I do not see an appreciable difference from other unwelcome callers.

Although calls for politicians or charities might not strictly fit the definition of telemarketers, I do not want to hear from them either. I do not want to be called after 9 p.m. local time or before 9 a.m. local time.

I consider all of these calls to be an invasion of my privacy. It is bad enough when I answer the phone to find out that a telemarketer is on the line, but really annoying when I find numerous messages on my answering machine.

Please do not allow these calls to be exempt from the "Do-NOT-CALL" list. Do not allow them to invade my privacy. Since the "Do-NOT-CALL" list was implemented, the unsolicited phone calls have quadrupled.

Very Respectfully,

"Do Not Call" list signatory

p.s. I tried to send this from another site but was unclear as to whether it actually was sent.
